Road to IAA Conference 2027

Your participation

MUNICH
SEPTEMBER 7—12, 2027 | PRESS DAY SEPTEMBER 6

Make a difference — be part of the IAA Conference 2027

The IAA Conference is the world's leading decision-maker conference for connecting mobility and tech topics.

Reach your target audience directly

The IAA Conference attracts a top-notch audience from across the mobility industry — from international decision-makers and executives to policymakers and industry experts. By participating as a sponsor or speaker, you reach exactly the people who matter most to your business.

Boost your brand awareness and maximize your reach

Through sponsorship or a speaking slot, position your company as a leading player in the industry. Make use of the stages of the IAA Conference to present your brand and make a lasting impression on the attendees. Visibility is the key to success and the IAA Conference offers you the ideal platform for it, presenting the most innovative content around mobility and tech.

Establish yourself as a thought leader

As a speaker at the IAA Conference, you have the chance to present your expertise and vision to an international audience. Set trends, share your insights, and actively shape the future of the mobility industry. Your voice matters and it will be heard at the IAA Conference.
